MINUTE ENTRY

The Court has been notified that as part of preparing her report, the Court Appointed Advisor (CAA) interviewed all of the children, both common to the parties and step-children, in both households. The Court asks the parties to indicate if they agree to have the CAA provide summaries of those interviews confidentially. That is, the Court would receive the summaries but the parties would not. The Court could use the summaries when ruling on the matter as well. The parties should each submit a short statement indicating whether or not they agree to the CAA providing confidential summaries of the children's interviews to the Court no later than August 12, 2016. The parties need not provide any reasoning for their decisions. It will be sufficient to write: "I consent to the CAA providing confidential summaries of child interviews to the Court" or "I do not consent to the CAA providing confidential summaries of child interviews to the Court." Both parties must agree for the summaries to be confidential. The
